

OBSOLESCENCE FACTOR CLAUSE

(Only when total losses at Replacement Cost are not covered)

If new or equal property to that damaged property is not available in the market, the value of equipment of the same efficiency and capacity shall be taken into consideration, but if the new equipment provides new functions due to technological development, the indemnity shall be a maximum 80% of the value of the new equipment.