

ERRORS OR OMISSIONS

ADDITIONAL CLAUSE

Subject to the General Conditions of the Policy, it is understood and agreed that any accidental error or omission on the description of the insured items shall not be to the detriment of the interests of the Insured, as the intention of this document is to provide protection at all times, without exceeding the limits established in the Policy, and without considering any additional coverage or location. Therefore, any accidental error or omission shall be corrected when it is found, and, if necessary, the premium shall be adjusted accordingly, in accordance with rate registered with the National Insurance and Bonding Commission.
