

FREE-ON-BOARD ANNEX

Subject to the terms, conditions, clauses and exclusions of the Policy, or those endorsed therein, it is understood and agreed that the Company shall compensate the Insured for damage or loss only when the following conditions are met:

Notwithstanding the General Conditions of the Policy, attached hereto, the Company shall only cover damage to and/or loss of the goods for the types of coverage agreed, once:

- The goods are on board on the vessel at the port of shipment and the respective pre-shipment certificate has been issued.
- For goods imported or exported by land, the Policy shall only cover damage to and/or loss of the goods for the types of coverage agreed, once they have been loaded and received on the means of land transport for shipment to the final destination, and once the respective pre-shipment certificate has been issued.
