

CLAUSE FOR CHANGE OF AUTHORIZED POINT OF FINAL DESTINATION

Subject to the terms, conditions, exclusions and clauses of the Policy, or those endorsed therein, it is understood and agreed that the Company shall compensate the Insured for damage or loss, under the following conditions:

If the Insured decides to change the point of final destination of the goods, after the insurance has come into effect, coverage may be maintained, provided that the Insured promptly notifies the Company and the premium and conditions are renegotiated.
