

DEFERRED UNPACKING

Subject to the terms, conditions, exclusions and clauses of the Policy, or those endorsed therein, it is understood and agreed that the Company shall compensate the Insured for damage and loss, on the condition that:

The loss of or damage to the goods covered by the Policy cannot be detected by their outer appearance in their original packing. The Company must be advised for inspection purposes within 24 hours after the loss or damage has been established, within 30 (thirty) days of the goods being unloaded at their point of final destination. If the Company is not advised as stated, its obligations shall cease.
