

RETURNED GOODS CLAUSE

If the consignee fails to receive the goods insured hereunder, for whatever reason, the Policy shall be extended to cover said goods until they are actually delivered and/or returned to sender or until delivery is made in any other way. Therefore, the Insured undertakes to notify the Company of these circumstances as soon as it becomes aware of them, or submit its declaration of shipment, so that the premium may be charged.