

OBJECTS OF DIFFICULT OR IMPOSSIBLE REPLACEMENT

ADDITIONAL CLAUSE

By means of this Clause, and the corresponding payment of premium, this Clause covers: fine arts, antiques, collections or other objects of difficult or impossible replacement, and subject forthwith to a prior appraisal showing that the value of this property is greater than 500 (five hundred) days of the minimum general salary in force in Mexico City, attested to by an appraiser, at the Insured's cost, including such appraisal in this Policy.

For the purpose of this coverage, one of the following Clauses should be included in the Policy:

CLAUSE 1.- For Insureds at all kinds, except for establishments dedicated to the buying and selling of such items:

"It is understood and agreed upon that, notwithstanding the provisions in the Individual Conditions of the Policy, the valuation of objects of difficult or impossible replacement covered herein, the inventory attached to this Policy has been taken as a basis, and that such is an attached copy of the valuation of each object as given by the Insured's contracted appraiser".

CLAUSE 2.- In case of insurances of establishments dedicated to the buying and selling of such items:

"It is understood and agreed upon that, notwithstanding the provisions in the Individual Conditions of the Policy, for the valuation of objects of difficult or impossible replacement covered herein, the acquisition cost declared by the Insured has been taken as a basis for each object, which shall serve as basis for any legal claim; theretofor, the Insured is obliged to keep a register of stock showing the acquisition cost of each object, and such inventory shall be kept in a fire proof safe deposit box, whensoever not in use".
